A Piano Sale Without A Parallel

Not since we started building pianos forty-four years ago have we held a sale of this magnitude. Every instrument is a Sohmer—some are slightly used, others are of discontinued styles, while still others are absolutely new but of a design not listed in our 1915 catalog. A number of Player Pianos are included. All used instruments have been thoroughly rebuilt in our own factory and are practically as good as new, and sold under the regular Sohmer guarantee. Just as a piano is a lifetime purchase, so is this sale a lifetime event in piano selling-for the Sohmer is recognized the world over as one of the only two or three truly artistic pianos made, and its price is a never varying standard. Every instrument offered was built to sell at the regular price. Pianos gladly taken in exchange. Convenient terms. The sale is now in progress and will continue for a few days.
